1. CHANGE TO THE SHIFT SUPERVISORS' INSPECTION REQUIREMENTS

Effective immediately, shift supervisors will no longer be required to inspect one outside employment detail and one randomly selected MVR video file per shift.

Based on a suggestion by Lieutenant John Cordova and a discussion by the senior command staff, the Police Chief has approved an immediate revision of Department procedures requiring completion of the aforementioned inspections from "one per shift," to "one per week."

Inspecting supervisors are still responsible to complete the requisite reports (Form 669 and Form MVR4) documenting their inspections. Districts and sections are still required to ensure the inspections are done and the forms are completed and routed. These inspections are important. The primary reason the Department has very few violations discovered during these inspections is due to the importance of the outside employment details and MVR recordings. It is well known that these activities are monitored and personnel genuinely strive to adhere to Department policy and procedure. This change is reflective of the Department's desire to minimize the "busywork" and paperwork placed upon supervisors, while maintaining focus on aspects of the profession that are important. Thanks to Lieutenant Cordova for a good suggestion.

The Policy and Procedure Unit will publish revisions to Procedure 12.537, Mobile Video/Digital Video Recording Equipment, Procedure 19.140, Outside Employment, and Form MVR4, Supervisor's Daily Review of MVR, DVR, Video File, in an upcoming publication of the Staff Notes.

2. POLICE RADIO CHANNEL B-15 AND B-16 RESERVED FOR CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS SECTION

The Emergency Communications Center (ECC) has permanently reserved Channel B-15 and B-16 of Department radios for Criminal Investigations Section (CIS). This will streamline preparations and communications for Dignitary Protection Details.

Personnel are advised to not use these channels unless directed by CIS to do so. All units are advised that this channel is not monitored by the ECC, unless officially requested. The channel is dedicated to CIS details and not for routine operational use such as traffic stops or suspicious person encounters.

3. PROFESSIONAL APPEARANCE

Transition to the new uniforms is proceeding and Procedure 12.020, Uniforms, Related Equipment, and Personal Grooming, is under revision to reflect the many changes. Personnel are reminded of the importance of maintaining a professional appearance, especially when wearing the uniform.

Regardless of the particular uniform combination being worn, personnel should strive to project a clean, sharp, "military" image. Uniform parts should be free of wrinkles, tears, stains, discoloration, and maintained in a clean, dry, serviceable condition. Supervisors shall ensure personnel under their command do not present an unprofessional, unkempt uniform or personal appearance.

While it is important to the Department and the City of Cincinnati for all personnel to project a professional image at all times, it will be crucial to do so during the World Choir Games being held in July. The Police Department and City as a whole will be judged by thousands of people from across the globe. Department personnel are expected to project a professional image in both their appearance and demeanor.

4. EMERGENCY SEARCH FOR MISSING AND ENDANGERED PERSONS (ESME) TRAINING

Training Section is conducting Emergency Search for Missing and Endangered Persons (ESME) training at the Police Academy on Tuesday, August 28, 2012, from 0800 to 1200 hours. The course will be instructed by personnel from the Cincinnati Police Department (CPD) Personal Crimes Unit.

The Department investigates approximately 1,500 reports of missing persons each year. Approximately 90% are closed "Returned Own Pleasure" and do not require special resources to locate the missing. However, it is impossible to predict which cases will require additional resources. The ESME program is an enhancement to the investigative process the CPD utilizes in missing person cases.

A program developed by the Personal Crimes Unit enhances the initial response and investigation of missing person cases. This program will assist officers in determining the appropriate resources and actions to best resolve the case. The ESME program enhances the Department's missing persons protocol from the moment a call is received at the Emergency Communications Center through the ultimate resolution of the case. The ESME program is based on national best practices, resources from the University of Cincinnati Police Institute (UCPI), Association of Police Communications Officers (APCO), National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC), Ohio Peace Officers Training Academy Curriculum and the Ohio Revised Code, just to name a few.

There are no pre-requisites or course fees to attend this training. No overtime will be provided for personnel attending this training. Officers may attend on-duty with the approval of their supervisor. Personnel interested in attending the training must submit a Form 17, through the chain of command to Training Section, no later than Friday, May 18, 2012. Training Section will complete the registration and notify personnel approved to attend. Questions regarding this training should be directed to Lieutenant Christine Briede, Training Section, at 357-7558.

5. COMPSTAT INFORMATION

Attached to these Staff Notes is the most current COMPSTAT Information. Department personnel are directed to review this information to ensure they remain familiar with crime patterns and trends occurring within the City and their areas of responsibility.

6. THANK YOU LETTERS

Attached to these Staff Notes are letters of appreciation and praise written to the Police Chief for the professionalism displayed by our Department, specifically the following personnel:

Captain Teresa Theetge

Police Officer Linda Sellers

Dear Captain Teresa Theetge,

Thank you for volunteering with the US Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program— Women and Justice.

Cincinnati has a long standing tradition of leadership in citizen diplomacy. Citizen diplomacy is the concept that, in a vibrant democracy, the individual citizen has the right—even the responsibility—to help shape U.S. foreign relations, as our members phrase it, “one handshake at a time.” Each year, an estimated 4,000 hours of volunteer time is donated by our local trustees, interns and community volunteers such as yourself. Building constructive connections with emerging leaders of other nations through direct interaction with American citizens is the United States’ best asset for improving international relations. I would like to share with you a few insights regarding this prestigious program.

- ★ U.S. ambassadors have ranked the IVLP first—in repeated surveys—among 63 public diplomacy programs.
- ★ Almost all of the budget for the International Visitor Leadership Program is spent in the United States.
- ★ More than 250 current and former heads of State, 1,700 cabinet-level ministers, and many other distinguished world leaders in government and the private sector have benefitted from first-hand exposure to the United States through the IVLP. Examples include: Nicolas Sarkozy, President of France; Gordon Brown, Prime Minister, United Kingdom; Hamid Karzai, President of Afghanistan; Anwar Sadat, Former President of Egypt.
- ★ The IVLP is vitally important to U.S. communities for generating economic development and cultivating a globally literate workforce.

We greatly appreciate you volunteering with the Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council on this citizen diplomacy program. Being sensitive to your busy schedule, I would welcome and appreciate your feedback on the day, including the value that you received. Please tell me one or two key points from your day that reinforces why the volunteer opportunity was time well spent for you. Likewise, if there is something I can do to improve our program, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Michelle Harpenau
Director of International Programs
Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council

P.S. If you feel that you had a very positive experience, please consider a gift to our council in order to continue these types of programs. Thank you for your support.

Dear Cincinnati Police Chief James Craig,

Police Detective Linda Sellers did an outstanding job in presenting at our Domestic Violence Seminar "My Cry in the Dark" that was held at the Drake Center on Saturday March 10, 2012. This free event was catered to women whose lives had been affected by domestic violence. Detective Sellers presented on issues from a police perspective and she is to be commended for her knowledge and passion on such a serious topic that has touched many lives.

Please thank Detective Sellers for her contribution to our event as our guest speaker, and for her continued commitment to serve the citizens of Cincinnati.
